

Each Day Goes Bye...

(From the "Lullabies: Poem, song, theme & variation" album)

Bergevin Brothers Music – May 2009

Lyrics & Music: Joe Bergevin

(c) Room by (Bb) room we walk (F) each night (G)

Quietly shutting off each light

(Amin) The home which (F) bright with (C) sun that (G) dawn

(F) Becomes the tender (G) sleeping fawn.

This darkness covers dreams and shapes

Until once more we pull the drapes

The future perfect, lifted high

Above the home, each day goes bye... (C)

(4 minutes of theme & variation on the tune by Jon)

Repeat poem...

Room by room we walk each night

Quietly shutting off each light

The home which bright with sun that dawn

Becomes the tender sleeping fawn.

This darkness covers dreams and shapes

Until once more we pull the drapes

Above the home, each day goes bye...
